To the members of the Graduating Class of 1959:

You are finishing a chapter of your "Book of Learning." Some of you, no doubt, will consider it the final chapter. Several of your classmates haven't even waited for graduation to write "finis."

Your mind, in every respect, has grown in much the same fashion as your body. It has become larger and stronger, more skilled in handling the tasks life allots to it. Unlike your body, your mind, if you rightly use it, will continue to develop for many years.

Your school has been concerned with three things,- all matters of growth. It has tried to see that your body has properly matured; it has helped you broaden and deepen your intellect; and it has guided you toward emotional control.

If, as you look back over your school days, you have made reasonable advancement in the things talked about in this letter, you have earned your diploma. But remember also that this year is not the final chapter. Education continues throughout life. The thoughtful among you realize this and will continue your studies.

Dear Members Of The Class of '59:

Graduation day will make a lasting impression on you. It is a time for rejoicing, congratulations and best wishes. It is an occasion when achievements are recognized, honors awarded and the counsel of experience spoken in the hope that you may better understand what to expect in the future.

Every moment wisely used will help to fortify you to meet with courage and confidence the most threatening challenge to our national existence, that must be met in the life time of your generation. It has been expertly planned and highly organized by a sinister government which aims by direct and devious means to confuse men's minds, weaken their wills, destroy their souls and then conquer and rule the world.

Your American heritage of freedom and bounteous plenty are blessings from God and the labor and sacrifices of men. As beneficiaries of a free society and an abundant life you are obligated to defend and strengthen the American way for posterity.

The future will belong to that nation or nations whose peoples will try, even though they fail at first, yet, will try again and again to help mankind realize his hopes and aspirations for freedom from want and fear.

If freedom is to survive and to be enjoyed by those now denied it, then, your generation must accept the hard task of enlightened and fearless leadership, and the responsible role of good citizenship. To meet successfully the challenge that is directed against all freedom loving people demands that you be steadfast in patriotism, resolute in honor, unwavering in trust and have an abiding faith in God.

This is not a pleasant message to bring you on your graduation, but conscience dictates that you be put on guard against the struggle of attrition now under way, lest we lose what our forefathers have gained--freedom.

I wish you a world at peace with all nations in the spirit of good will sharing each others fortunes as well as aiding each other in times of misfortune.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence B. Morris

ALMA MATER

Hail to Jim Thorpe so dear, faithful and true,
Proudly her colors wave red, white and blue;
Though we be far away on distant shores,
"Hail to Jim Thorpe," we'll sing, "faithful and true."

When at the close of day, all gather round,
Comes again a joy, fellowship profound.
Tunefully raise we now our chorus strong;
Hail to Jim Thorpe so dear, forever abound.

Tunefully raise we now our chorus strong;
Hail to Jim Thorpe so dear, forever abound.

CLASS ECHOES

Now get this straight!
Levez-vous pour la priere, s'il vous plait.
I could, but I won't.
Sig n out first.
Who sits there?
He who hesitates is lost.
I'm not telling you again . . .
Girls! . . . . . Attention!
We have a lot on the agenda for today.
Oh no, not again!
Turn down the volume!
Get ready for your timed writings..
A word to the wise should be sufficient!
Not another test!
But there's a game tonight!
We didn't know we were having a test today.
You're unteachable!
Find the facts; filter the facts; fuse the facts; follow the facts!
It's only the first bell.
You know the regulations.
I can teach you but I can't learn you!
Remove the gum!
Do you have our tests corrected yet?
Let's quiet down!
Would you rather stay after school?
